EDWIN SHORT RECEIVES HIGH COMMENDATIONS FOR RUNNING MATCHES AND POLE VAULTING.

The following account of the excellent showing of the Astoria High School track team in the contests at Portland last Saturday has been handed into this office:

Saturday night the Astorian High School track team returned from Portland where they made an excellent showing at the Columbia meet.

Edwin Short, the speedy Astoria sprinter, received high commendation from the track critics for the excellent showing he made in the pole vault, 50 and 220 yard dashes. He was vaulting against such men as Moulten of Oregon, Swann of O. A. C., and Kuykendall of U. of O., and won fourth place, clearing 9 feet 6 inches, with ease.

He easily won his heat in the 50-yard dash and by an accident in the semi-finals was shut out in the finals. In the 220 yard dash, Short won second place, after winning first in his heat and in the semi-finals.

Harbert, another A. H. S. boy, delighted the purple and gold followers and surprised his opponents, by winning second place, in the high jumps, easily defeating Forest Smithson, the world's champion hurdler, and Moulten and Kuykendall of University of Oregon. He cleared the bar at 5 feet 8 inches.

Trainer Cathey of the Astoria High School, declares he has the material to make a winning team, and proudly states that the Astoria school will be in the foremost list of winners at the big inter-schoolastic meet at Corvallis next June.

The boys certainly have done well and deserve the support of all loyal Astorians.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS

Civic Improvement League—

Will meet tonight at 8 o'clock at the Methodist Church instead of at the Presbyterian Church as heretofore arranged.

Mrs. Alice Casey Dead—

Mrs. Alice Casey died in this city yesterday after a lingering illness of tuberculosis, aged 48 years. Mrs. Casey is a sister of Captain J. H. Lamley master of the steamer General Washington. The funeral arrangements have not been completed.

Salmon Protection Committee—

An enthusiastic meeting was held in the Chamber of Commerce rooms yesterday afternoon and the committee of 15 whom the Mayor appointed at the request of the mass meeting last Friday evening, gathered to perfect the organization. The following officers were elected: Herman Wise, chairman; W. E. Schimpff, vice chairman; John H. Whyte, secretary; S. S. Gordon, treasurer. The work of gathering funds for the dissemination of literature explaining the necessity of supporting the Columbia River Salmon Protective Association bill will be taken up and vigorously prosecuted.

Sister Superior Retiring—

Sister Tancreda, who has been the superior at St. Mary's hospital for the past six years, will leave for Portland on Wednesday morning to return to St. Vincent's Hospital in the metropolis. She has made many warm friends while in this city and will be missed by the many people who have business at that admirable institution not the least of whom are the newspapermen who have invariably received the most courteous treatment and all the news. The new Sister Superior Sister Andrews, is the new head of the Institution, coming down on the evening train last Saturday.

In the Police Court—

Two cases were before his honor, Judge Anderson, when the police court convened yesterday afternoon. H. M. Batty, who is the proprietor of a pool room on Commercial street between Tenth and Ninth streets, was arrested Saturday night for allowing minors in his place of business after 10 o'clock at night. About a month ago this same man was arrested on a similar charge and his fine was suspended upon his promising to be more circumspect in the future. Mr. Batty was represented by counsel. He was fined $10 which was promptly paid. The other case was an elderly woman on a charge of drunkenness and if the court had let her tell her story with her history and most everybody else's the session would have lasted till it would have been time to turn on the electric. He, however, confined her to the charge and assessed her $10 or five days. Her release to be at the option of Chief Gammal.

In Beautiful Greenwood—

At 1 o'clock yesterday the funeral of Edward H. Utzinger occurred in the presence of his family, kinsmen, and a host of grieving friends, the cortege moving from the family home to Grace Episcopal Church, where Re. W. Seymour Short, rector, read the touching service of that church over all that was mortal of the popular young Astorian. At the close of the service, the solemn line of march was taken up that lead to the Callender dock where the steamer Jorndan lay in readiness to transport the remains to beautiful Greenwood; ad as the casket and its guard of loving friends were on board she steamed slowly into the bay and proceeded on her sad errand up the sun-lit reaches of Young's River. Arrived at the cemetery the Foresters of America gave their fraternal attention to the sad engagement of the hour and buried their friend with all the rites of the order. The floral tributes were very numerous and beautiful; and these, with the feeling offerings made by those privileged to voice the sympathy and love of the host in attendance, lent ample proof of the abundant honor in which this young citizen was held in this his home city.

CURES COUGHS AND COLDS.

Hyomei Gives Relief in 10 Minutes—Cures Over Night.

Everybody knows, or ought to know, that Hyomei is recognized among scientists as the specific for Catarrh, Asthma, Bronchitis and Hay Fever, but there are a great many people who do not know that Hyomei will cure a cough or a cold in less than 24 hours.

But everyone should know that the soothing, balmy and antiseptic air of Hyomei when breathed over the raw and inflamed membrane of the nose and throat will instantly allay the inflammation, and will effect a prompt cure.

Complete Hyomei outfit, including inhaler, costs only $1.00, at T. F. Laurin, extra bottles, if afterwards needed, will cost but 50 cents.

Joseph M. Harbaugh, Heldredge, Neb., writes: "I have used your Hyomei in my family for two years or more, and find it one of the best remedies we ever used for a cold or sore throat. We find that it gives quick relief in cases of catarrh."

LAWSON, THE DREAMER.

It was only ten days after telling the President how to cure all the evils of our economic life by a White House proclamation, that Lawson publicly announced that he had quit reforming; and a few days later, when the publisher of "Frenzied Finance" cried out despairingly: "Lawson, this is an awful thing you have done, giving up the fight for the people," the Crusader's pent-up wrath burst forth: "The people! What do I owe to the gelatine spined shrimps? What have the saffron-blooded apes done for me or mine? The people, particularly the American people, are a joke—a System joke!"

No, the American people are not a joke—nor are they apes or shrimps; but they would be a joke—they would be apes and shrimps—if they became marionettes to dance to the sting-jerkings of a brilliant phrasemaker whose livelihood is gained by gambling in stocks; a man whose whole life's record as a stock gambler, as a company promoter, as a financial go-between, stamps him indisputably as an ungoverned enthusiast unworthy of a serious following in any great venture; a financial soldier of fortune, who, like a Hession of the Revolution, fights under the banner that is richest in gold—however foul the cause, however wretched its followers. The American people would be a joke—a Lawson joke—they would be gelatine-spined shrimps and saffron-hued apes—if they destroyed by one mad stroke their centuries-old machinery of finance, at the very height of their prosperity and happiness, to try a mysterious economic experiment invented by a spectacularly unwise prophet, with a life's record of constructive defeats and destructive victories.

Lawson calls his fellow-Americans bad names because they don't follow him blindly out on a dark highway leading to a mysterious remedy.

No wonder that the American people ask: "Is this man a fool or a knave?"

But he's not a fool and he's not a knave. He's an enthusiast—a brilliant, emotional, egotistical enthusiast—whose banner bears the legend, "The end justifies the means."—Success Magazine.

BIG PRIZE AWARDED.

Interest in community publicity reached a climax in Portland last week when the eighty prizes offered by the Portland Commercial Club for articles on the Pacific Northwest printed in papers outside of Oregon and Washington, were awarded and the money distributed the same day. The judges were Messrs. James F. Ewing, of Portland Academy, J. F. Taylor, news editor of the Oregon Journal, and W. J. Cuddy, editor of the Week Oregonian, and they have spent two and one-half months reading the more than one million words submitted by various contestants. Rev. John Roach Straton, pastor of the Seventh Baptist Church, of Baltimore, Maryland, was winner of the grand prize of $1000. He was in Portland last summer for a short visit. Miss Mateel Howe, of Portland, was awarded the second prize of $500. Articles were in competition from every state in the Union, and almost every state had its representative among the winners.

Mr. Chas. S. Fee, Passenger Traffic Manager of the Harrison Lines, spent three full days in Portland last week in consultation with General Passenger Agent William McMurray and other officials, arranging the details of a 28-hour service between Portland and San Francisco. When Senator George C. Perkins of California, in a speech recently delivered before the United States Senate, made the statement that Portland harbor afforded a depth of between 19 and 20 feet, the people of the great Columbia River Basin and all those of the Pacific Northwest were astonished. The most thorough compilation of the shipping of 1907 from this port shows numerous vessels with drafts ranging from 25 to 25.9 feet, and a very large number averaging in excess of 24 feet. The people of the Columbia River basin do not appreciate the misrepresentation constantly given the River, and have asked Senator Perkins to correct his erroneous statement in the Senate, but up to this time he has not done so.

Mayor Heitfeld, of Lewiston, came to Portland on the 10th at the head of a delegation of Lewiston-Clarkston citizens, including officials of the commercial bodies, the managers of their numerous irrigation projects, railroad officials and capitalists to personally invite representative citizens of Portland to visit Lewiston-Clarkston on May 1st, to celebrate the opening of the "Riparia Cut-off", which means a 10 hour schedule between those cities and Portland.

"Were it not for the fact that my avocation makes it necessary for me to reside in the national capital," said F. J. Haskin, the famous foreign correspondent, representing some forty of the leading metropolitan papers of the country, "I would choose the Pacific Northwest for my home. In no section of the world is the reward of endeavor so sure, and life so wholesome and delightful. I have encountered the most delightful weather in Portland that I have seen during a trip of more than 20,000 miles since January 1st."

SERMONS IN STONE.

Leisure is sweet to those who have earned it, but burdensome to those who get it for nothing.

A sunny, cheerful heart changes a world of gloom into a paradise of beauty.

One man's heart makes him a king in a palace.

No education is adequate to the needs of life which does not produce decision of character, courage, self-control and perseverance.

Happiness is a means rather than an end. It creates energy, promotes growth and nutrition and prolongs life.

We should treat our detractors and calumniators as Mirabeau did. When speaking at Marseilles he was called "calumniator liar, assassin, scoundrel." He said: "I wait, gentlemen, until these amenities are exhausted."

A cough cure than can be given to children without chance of harm is Kemp's Balsam, the best cough cure. It does not contain poisons or harmful drugs. Druggists sell it.
